Soundline
NORTH SHORE, LONG ISLAND

Free · Ages 10 to 13

Build an instrument out of junk. Make it play.

Then stand up and explain to a room full of grown-ups exactly why it works. (That part is harder. That part is the point.)

- Saturdays, 10 to 11:30
- Nothing to bring
- Your parents come at 11:15

Nov 21	Instrument lab	10:00 to 11:30
Dec 5	The Quest	10:00 to 11:30
Dec 12	Build, then the parents' half hour	10:00 to 12:00
Dec 19	World percussion: the Showcase	10:00 to 11:30
Dec 29 to 31	Winter Quest, three mornings	9:15 to 12:30 each day
Jan 9	Bring a friend	10:00 to 11:30

soundlineschool.com/build

Scan to save a spot. The address comes with your confirmation.

Soundline is a new school for grades six through eight, opening on Long Island's North Shore next September: ten to twelve in a grade, two hours of practice, four hours of making. These Saturdays are what a Friday there looks like. Run by Adam King, who has run instrument labs and escape rooms in libraries across Long Island for years.

hello@soundlineschool.com
soundlineschool.com